Investing Their Treasure: Pediatrics By The Sea, Rick Lowe Fine Art, and Agape Behavioral Healthcare

May was National Foster Care Month, and while we were spreading the word about the need in foster care, recruiting new foster families, and advocating for kids in crisis, our 4KIDS Partners were doing the same through their generosity!

Tuesday, May 27, was our May Day of Giving, and because of Pediatrics by the Sea, Agape Behavioral Healthcare, and Rick Lowe Fine Art, all gifts given on that day we doubled up to $100,000! These partners, along with others, helped us reach our goal and exceed it! Those funds will greatly impact the vulnerable kids and families we serve.

Dr. Bradley Bradford from Pediatrics By The Sea said, "Many years of taking care of children have taught us that a loving stable home environment is crucial for the wellbeing of a child. That's why we support 4KIDS and we love the motto: 'Until Every Child Has A Home.' We can only give kids medicine but we have no medicine to cure the hole in their hearts. A family is needed to heal that hole and show them the love of Jesus. That's what 4KIDS can do."

These partners truly care about the boys and girls who are waiting for a loving family and safe place to call home, and their financial contribution this May is helping to bring Hope, Homes, and Healing to these kiddos - thank you!

Investing Their Time: JM Family Enterprises, TIL Life Skills Class

One of our long-time partners, JM Family Enterprises, continues to support our Transitional Independent Living (TIL 2:25) Residents by regularly hosting Life Skills Classes designed to promote healthy habits and provide essential knowledge these young adults can carry into their futures.

On April 14th, the latest Life Skills Class took place onsite at JM Family's "Nest" (their kitchen/cafeteria), led by Chef John and his team. During this hands-on session, TIL residents learned how to prepare a delicious meal of stuffed chicken with broccoli and cheese, jasmine rice pilaf, and roasted garden vegetables.

In addition to gaining culinary skills, each participant received baking sheets, kitchen utensils, and all the ingredients needed to recreate the meal at home—equipping them with both knowledge and tools for continued success. After the class, everyone gathered to enjoy a shared dinner of chicken alfredo pasta, strawberry field salad, and garlic parmesan rolls.

Lisa Davis, Director of Community Impact at JM Family Enterprises explained, "Giving back is part of our culture at JM Family, and we are honored to partner with 4KIDS. Watching the participants interact, open up, share laughter while preparing a nutritious meal, and ultimately break bread together was truly the highlight of our experience."

Thanks to JM Family Enterprises, these young men and women didn't just enjoy an incredible meal—they walked away with valuable life skills and a sense of empowerment for the future.

Investing Their Talent: Get Fit 4KIDS – Atlas Performance & Fitness, HEW Wellington, Jacqueline Burbage Yoga

In addition to our May Day of Giving, local businesses stepped up in a big way during National Foster Care Month—partnering with 4KIDS to raise both awareness and funds using their unique platforms and passions. One standout initiative was our GetFit 4KIDS campaign.

Across Palm Beach County, local trainers and gyms hosted “donation-only” classes as part of GetFit 4KIDS, bringing their communities together to lift, stretch, sweat and support kids in foster care. These classes weren’t just about fitness, they became opportunities for participants to learn about the foster care crisis and discover how they can be part of the solution. Thanks to the generosity and heart of these fitness professionals, the campaign raised over $2,500 for 4KIDS!

We’re incredibly grateful to Atlas Performance & Fitness, HEW Wellington, and Jacqueline Burbage Yoga for using your passion and your platforms to make a difference. Your support not only raised funds, but helped open eyes to the real needs in our community.

Inge Baumert, owner of HEW Wellington and a 4KIDS foster and adoptive mom, shared, “Hosting the donation class was honestly the best! Seeing our members show up with so much heart, knowing it was for the kids, made it extra meaningful. It reminded us that fitness can be more than just workouts — it can create real impact.”

Jacqueline Burbage added, “It was such a pleasure and a true honor to have been able to support such a great cause. I love our Delray Beach community and I hope we can do more.”

To our dedicated 4KIDS partners, thank you! Your commitment and compassion continue to move the mission forward.
